

The AOPD Difference

- Power of Independence
- A Network that Delivers
- Making Procurement Easier

Experience
Local Service, Nationwide

Who is AOPD?

There's a better way to source Office and Facility Supplies for regional and national locations. The AOPD nationwide business supply network provides personalized service, seamless distribution and tailored procurement solutions that improve workflow and productivity.

Enjoy the confidence that comes with the relationship of a reliable, accountable and local supplier who is committed to a higher level of service. When you combine that with competitive pricing and the network to deliver nationwide, you gain the kind of tailored support you can't get anywhere else, including the big box stores or online retailers.

So if you're tired of customer service from a national call center, unaccountable third party delivery services and not seeing the savings you were promised, the AOPD network has a solution for you.

This is Local Service, Nationwide.

Progressive & Reliable

Experienced & Knowledgeable

Reasons to Believe

1

Solve Your Nationwide Business Supply Needs

The AOPD business supply network includes some of the most progressive, proficient and reliable independent office and facility supply distributors in the country. With over 180 locations across the U.S. and Canada, we provide exceptional local service and distribution anywhere you need it.

Enjoy Tailored and Flexible Service

Tailored service is not an exception or an amenity, it's the foundation of a productive business relationship. Unlike others in the industry, we do not make you fit our system. With AOPD you will experience a willingness to tailor solutions that fit your unique needs.

Control Cost Across Your Organization

At AOPD we simplify procurement and reduce costs with tailored online ordering solutions that give you the control to manage your budgets and business objectives while automating administrative functions. We also put the buying power of our members to work to deliver highly competitive pricing packages and contract savings across your organization. This includes individual negotiated corporate contracts as well as government, healthcare and public sector contracts.

Experience the Measurable Difference of Independence

AOPD members are committed and accountable independent businesses. That independence enables us to build business relationships with a measurable difference. You will enjoy:

- Experienced, dedicated and local account managers backed by proactive customer service teams who ensure that your supplies are delivered when you need them, where you need them.
- Reliable delivery options that include desktop delivery to save you time and improve workflow logistics.
- Customized ordering and management systems that automate your budget management and cost control.

This all saves time and money across your organization from the ordering and receiving process to departmental management, through accounting and beyond.

Buy Local

When buying through AOPD, you support locally owned dealers, thereby keeping your budgeted procurement dollars within your community. This directly nurtures local businesses, but more importantly, provides income to local people.

Diversity Programs

All AOPD dealers are designated small businesses, helping you reach your small business initiatives. But as a nationwide network, AOPD can also connect you with our members possessing a variety of specific diversity designations, including:

- Woman-owned (WOSB)
- Minority-owned (MBE)
- Historically Underutilized Businesses (HUB)
- Veteran-owned (VOSB)
- Service-disabled veteran-owned (SDVOSB)
